

14 Day Money Mastery Action Plan

Hey! I'm Aimee Cerka

Money Confidence Coach - Wife - Momma to 4.

After over 10 years in the personal finance industry and multiple personal financial and medical crises, I was fed up with the lies that are being shouted from the rooftops by gurus and the media. So now I help ambitious women step into unstoppable finances.

Unstoppable finances allow you to finally have clarity, peace, and confidence with your money regardless of what's going on in the economy so that you can create the happiness, family life, financial security, and long-term wealth you deserve. All without the stress, working 80 hour work weeks or living off beans and rice!

My favorite place to hang out on social is Instagram so to catch behind the scenes, special offers, training and of course reels, connect with me @aimeecerka

You can also check out the Your Money Your Life podcast, if you're ready to eliminate stress, struggle, frustration, and guilt within your finances that's the place to be. I drop new episodes weekly!  <https://aimeecerka.com/podcast>

I can't wait for you to dive into the Action Plan and start to create your Unstoppable Finances & Unstoppable Life! Let's get to it

Note: I know that budgeting can be overwhelming. Did you know that not all budgets are created equal? There is one way to budget that I've found works way better than the rest. It works if you have inconsistent income, it scales with your income. It gives you money to have fun with while growing your financial security as well. Want to learn more? Check out the DIY course to help you budget stress-free in just 4 weeks.
